

The Sir Thomas Restaurant - Cullinan, opened on 1 May 2002, was named after Sir Thomas Major Cullinan of Cullinan Diamond Mine fame.

*Founder of the Premium Diamond Mining Company.
Sir Thomas was born in the Cape Colony in 1862. He later moved to Johannesburg where he lived for the rest of his life. He was knighted by the Duke of Connaught representing King George V, at the inauguration of the union of South Africa in 1910*

The Restaurant changed management in November 2006 when Chef Coleby and his family took ownership.

Experience the ambiance and culture of our wonderful village, perfected in our traditional and contemporary food, freshly prepared and served with style.

We aim to bring you the freshest food possible in the tastiest combinations. None of our dishes are pre-prepared. All are cooked from scratch on receipt of your order.

We endeavor to prepare and serve all dishes swiftly, however food freshly prepared may take a little longer. We therefore ask for your patience and understanding ...

Great food is worth waiting for!

We are not a fast food Restaurant so please note that there are some of our dishes on our menu that take longer to prepare and cook; your waiter will inform you of this and keep you advised.

If you are in a hurry please advise your waitron as soon as possible and they will discuss with you dishes which can be prepared more speedily.

Please remember: if we do not please you, tell us; if we do please you, please tell others.
